Complex Epilepsy Conference for Professionals

Friday 12 October 2012
8.45am – 5pm

Solihull, West Midlands

Book before 31 July for a special rate of £80 per person

Young Epilepsy and Matthew's Friends are running a one day conference aimed at all professionals who work directly with families of children and young people with complex epilepsy. This event is ideal for those who want to learn more about the condition and how it affects the child and the family.

This will include paediatric and community nurses; learning disability teams; therapists; psychologists; community paediatricians; GPs with an interest in epilepsy; SENCOs; teachers; social workers and carers.

Lively talks will be given by experts in the field of epilepsy including Prof Helen Cross, The Prince of Wales's Chair of Childhood Epilepsy; Dr Sunny Philip, Birmingham Children's Hospital; Dr Archana Desurkar and Dr Krishna Das, Young Epilepsy; epilepsy specialist nurses and parents who have experience of living with complex epilepsy.

Topics covered on the day include:

- Diagnosis and misdiagnosis
- Latest treatments
- Impact on the family
- Risk of on-going epilepsy
- Complex epilepsy case studies
- Optimising services
- Impact on learning and education
- How to support the family
- Changing society's perspective
